DIVINE SHIELDING

Invocations for Protection for the
Prayers of Light

Introduction

In a world full of noise and distraction, the soul longs for stillness — a space where you can reconnect with the truth of who you are. Every day, unseen energies shape our thoughts, influence our emotions, and pull us away from our highest path. But you are not powerless. Within you lives a divine spark, and through prayer and invocation, you can awaken its strength.

The words within this book are not just sentences on a page — they are keys. Each prayer, each invocation, carries an intention: to guide, protect, and realign you with the higher forces that watch over you.

Whether you seek protection from negative energy, clarity on your path, or a deeper connection to the Divine, these practices are designed to open the door.

You do not need to follow any belief system to use these prayers. All that is required is an open heart and a willingness to remember who you truly are — a being of light, loved and supported beyond measure.

Let this book be your companion, a gentle guide back to the source within you.

Section 1: Preparing for Prayer

Before you begin the invocations, it's important to create a sacred space — a moment where you step out of the noise of the world and into stillness. Prayer is most powerful when your heart, mind, and energy are aligned. This simple preparation will help you enter that state of openness and clarity:

Step 1 — Find Your Space

Choose a quiet place where you won't be disturbed. It doesn't need to be elaborate — a corner of your room, a candle on your desk, or even a moment beneath the sky. What matters is presence.

Step 2 — Breathe and Ground

Close your eyes and take seven slow, deep breaths. With each inhale, imagine drawing in light. With each exhale, release any tension or fear. Feel your body grounding into the earth beneath you.

Step 3 — Set Your Intention

Whisper softly, either aloud or within your heart:

"I open myself to the light, to divine protection, and to guidance beyond this world. I call upon my guides and protectors — be it Jesus, Archangel Michael, Buddha, or any of the Christed, beautiful beings of light who walk with me. Surround me, guide me, and protect me as I open my heart to the divine."

Step 4 — Call In Protection

Before you begin, silently invite divine protection around you. Imagine yourself surrounded by a sphere of radiant white light — a shield that nothing negative can penetrate.

Step 5 — Open Your Heart

Allow yourself to become fully present. Let go of expectations. Let your soul settle into stillness. From here, the prayers and invocations will flow with greater power.

Section 2: Invocations for Protection

Protection is not about resisting the world — it's about aligning with the light that no darkness can touch. These invocations are designed to strengthen your energy field, dissolve fear, and call in the presence of divine protectors. You may speak them aloud or silently within your heart.

Invocation 1 – Shield of Light

"I surround myself with a radiant shield of divine light.

No fear, no shadow, no darkness may enter.

Only truth, only love, only the presence of God flows within me and around me.

I am safe. I am protected. I am free."

Invocation 2 – Calling Archangel Michael

Wrap me in your wings of sapphire light.

Cut away all cords of fear, illusion, and deception.

Stand beside me as my shield and my strength."
